SUPPLEMENT TO
REPORT NO. [REDACTED]24 July 1949

- 25X1X
- About 7,000 Communist troops with full field equipment have moved toward Lungkou (120-20, 37-40). The town of Huanghsien (120-32, 37-38) has been instructed to prepare food for 20,000 persons. [REDACTED] the purpose of the movement is to offset any attempts at landing by Nationalist forces.
 - During the past week bus and truck service between Weihsien (119-07, 36-43) and Chefoo (121-24, 37-32) has been stopped because the road runs along the coast near Lungkou and several vehicles have been hit by gunfire from ships offshore.

29 July 1949

- There are said to be 40 Nationalist warships at Changshan Island. An attempt by Communist troops to make a landing on Changshan from junks is said to have been repelled by the Nationalists with heavy Communist losses. Communist troops in the Lungkou-Huanghsien district, said to number over 200,000 (sic), are charged with the responsibility of thwarting any Nationalist landing in Shantung.
